EVIDENCE SEQUENCE

AREA TYPE

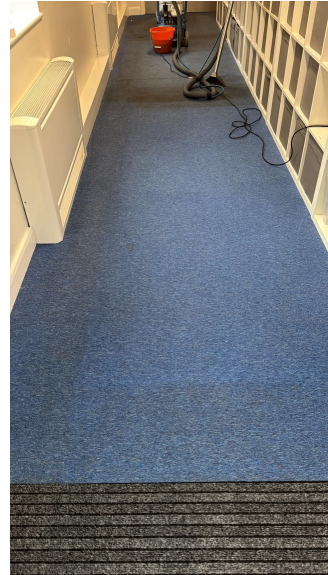

High-footfall carpeted corridor

SCOPE BOUNDARY

No technical process specification

This case study records a confirmed high-footfall school-carpet cleaning project in County Durham. The supplied images support a limited visual sequence: corridor condition before cleaning, active carpet-cleaning activity and completed-corridor presentation views.

The photographs do not establish a particular extraction method, chemical process, machine setting, drying time, floor area or soil-removal measurement. Those details are not added to this record.

PROJECT-SPECIFIC PLANNING

High-traffic school corridors need a plan that reflects the actual carpet condition, timetable, route through the building and scope agreed with the site. The evidence here is most useful as a concise project sequence rather than a claim that every corridor will require the same approach. CLEANWISE uses the initial condition and access context to inform a tailored proposal. The confirmed project then moves through the agreed cleaning activity and an appropriate visual handover record, with methods and timing confirmed for the specific building.

SUPPLIED PROJECT EVIDENCE

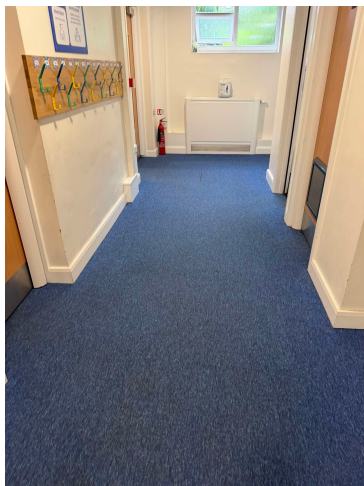

THE CLEANWISE APPROACH

Start with the documented condition and agreed scope.

A suitable project method is confirmed against the individual property, access and handover requirement rather than assumed from a photograph alone.

An organised delivery frame

WHAT A CLEAR PROJECT PLAN LOOKS LIKE

CONTEXT FOR THE AGREED SCOPE

01 · ASSESS

Review the visible high-footfall condition and corridor access context.

02 · AGREE

Confirm the required areas, timing and building-specific project scope.

03 · CLEAN

Complete the agreed carpet-cleaning activity for the confirmed corridor areas.

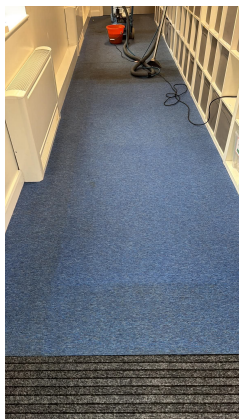

04 · RECORD

Retain a clear presentation record without promising a universal outcome.

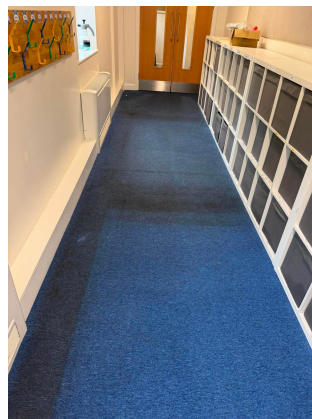

CLEANWISE uses this project frame to keep an enquiry organised: establish the real condition, define the requested work, confirm the property-specific arrangements and record the agreed scope clearly. This is a planning structure, not a claim that every building or project will require the same method.

How to read the evidence

PROJECT EVIDENCE

EVIDENCE BOUNDARY

The image set supports a before, active-cleaning and completed-corridor sequence. It should not be read as a technical method statement or as a quantified claim about drying, stain removal or the result available at another school.

- Images remain in their confirmed project context.
- Project descriptions avoid unsupported technical claims.
- No client endorsement or broader contract is inferred.
- Future requirements are reviewed on their own merits.
